INTERNATIONAL AWARD

For students projects on cartographic engineering and related sciences

In honour of Francisco Coello de Portugal y Quesada, a prolific cartographer and instigator of the modern cartography in Spain, the Vice President for Extracurricular Activities and the Polytechnic University College of the University of Jaén is proud to announce the ninth edition of "The Francisco Coello International Award for Degree and Master Thesis Projects in the study of Cartographic Engineering and Related Sciences", with the following conditions of entry for applicants

APPLICANTS

This competition is open to candidates from the whole University community. Students from Technical Colleges may apply if they have submitted their student project, after 2006, on one of the following subjects: Cartography, Geodesy, Photogrammetry, Cadastral Surveying and Mapping, Geographical Information Systems, Remote Sensing, Land Planning, Surveying and Mapping Tools and Techniques, etc.

SUBMISSIONS.....

The project submitted must be the same as the one used by the applicant to be awarded his/her degree.

- The original document can be presented written in Spanish or English language.
- The document should be presented in written form, in DIN-A4 paper format, and any graphic information should be presented to an adequate scale and in a separate annex.

- Candidates applying from outside Spain may submit their documents in pdf format and send them in soft copy (CD or DVD), together with a certificate of authenticity issued from the university department in which it was originally presented.
- The document presented may show the author's name, where he/she is from, tutorship, college or any other explanatory data which appears on the original work.

AWARDS

- There are two different competitions: In the first, those candidates who have submitted projects which have led them to being awarded a University Diploma* may apply and the second is for those applicants whose projects have led to them being awarded a University Bachelor's Degree-Master's Degree.
- In both cases, the award money offered has been set at 1500 euros. Together with this, the successful applicants will receive material and equipment granted by the different sponsors of this competition including: bibliography, computer based tools and mapmaking software ceded by these sponsors.
- The panel of judges may decide to concede any of these two awards to more than one applicant, in which case, the award will be shared by the winners.
- The prize will be awarded to the projects, regardless of the number of authors that have participated in their elaboration.
- A certificate will be issued to the supervisors-tutors of the award-winning projects in acknowledgement of their work.

*University Diploma level is equivalent to a 3 year University course or 180 credits according to the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS).

Bachelor's Degree-Master's Degree level is equivalent to a 4-5 year University course or 240-300 credits according to the ECTS.

CERTIFICATES.....

All applicants will receive a certificate for having participated in the competition.

DEADLINE FOR ADMISSION.....

The deadline for the presentation of the candidates' projects will be 30st October 2009 at 14:00 hours.

PANEL OF JUDGES.....

The panel of judges will be composed of University lecturers and professionals of renowned prestige related to the subjects being judged.

DECISION.....

The result of the competition will be publicly announced on 12th November 2009. The prizes will be awarded on 19th November 2009 at the University of Jaén. There is no right to appeal against the final decision reached by the judges.
